A photograph of a tree-lined park path. The path is paved and runs through a lush green park with many large, mature trees. A person is running on the path in the distance. The scene is bright and sunny, with dappled light on the grass.

MEMORY OF OUR FATHERS
THE REVOLUTION

A granite memorial bench with an inscription. The bench is made of light-colored granite with a speckled texture. It has a curved backrest and decorative scrollwork on the sides. The inscription is engraved in the center of the backrest. The bench is shown from a three-quarter perspective, reflecting on a dark surface below it.
