The Massachusetts Historical Commission will give a presentation on the proposed nomination of the Uphams Corner Historic District to the National Register of Historic Places. This public informational meeting, held in preparation for the State Review Board's consideration of the nomination on December 13, 2023, will provide all interested parties with information about the nomination. The public will have the opportunity to comment on the proposal. Any questions that property owners have about the effects of National Register listing will be answered.
