

BOSTON FOOD WASTE DROP-OFF

The City of Boston has community food waste drop-off locations in neighborhoods across the City.

These drop-off locations provide a place for Boston residents to conveniently compost their food scraps 24-hours a day, seven days a week.

YES, PLEASE!

- Fruits and vegetables
- Grains, bread, and pasta
- Eggs and eggshells
- Seeds and nuts
- Coffee and tea
- Food soiled paper
- BPI, CMA, or OK certified compostable products
- Desserts
- Flowers

NO, THANKS!

- Meat
- Dairy
- Plastic bags
- Produce stickers
- Food from businesses or events
- Pet waste
- Cigarettes

To learn more and find the location closest to you, visit boston.gov/food-waste-drop-off