Dear Commissioners:

I recommend that the following vote attached hereto and referred to as the Boston Fire Department agenda, be approved by the Commission at its December 18, 2024 meeting:

VOTE 1: Dion Irish, Chief of Operations, Mayor's Office and Paul F. Burke, Commissioner/Chief of Department, Boston Fire Department

NAMING OF A MUNICIPAL BUILDING: Regarding the renaming of the Boston Fire Department's Training Academy, located at 1 Moon Island Road, Quincy, MA.

WHEREAS, Chapter 642 of the Acts of 1966 established the Public Facilities Commission in order to provide oversight and control of land and buildings used for municipal purposes; and

WHEREAS, the Public Facilities Commission serves an important role in the development of the City through the approval process in the sale, transfer, and use of municipal land and buildings; and

WHEREAS, the City Council passed an ordinance regarding the naming of municipal buildings on February 13, 2013, thereby amending Chapter VII of the City of Boston Code by adding section 8-11.0, entitled, "Naming of Municipal Buildings"; and

WHEREAS, section 8-11.0 provides the Public Facilities Commission with exclusive authority in naming municipal buildings; and

WHEREAS, on June 26, 2024 and further amended on August 28, 2024 the Public Facilities Commission voted to adopt the naming or re-naming of municipal buildings policy pursuant to the authority granted under City of Boston code, ordinances, section 8-11; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the aforementioned policy, the Public Facilities Commission received a petition from the Boston Fire Department and written letter from Honorable Mayor Michelle Wu, supporting the proposed re-naming of the Boston Fire Training Academy formerly known as the Chief John A. Martin Fire Academy and requesting that said building is re-named the Captain Leo T. Sullivan Fire Training Academy.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED; the Public Facilities Commission, does hereby declare that said building is named the Captain Leo T. Sullivan Fire Training Academy.

Sincerely,

Paul F. Burke
Commissioner/Chief of Department
Boston Fire Department
